Matt,

I spent some time in Ohio working on the election. What a magnificent result for the country. For me personally, the experience was invigorating and a great deal of fun. And the experience rekindled my interest in public service and a strong desire to work for this Administration. While I've spent considerable time trying to help the cause on a volunteer basis in various roles, I concluded that I'd really like to be a full-time member of the team. [REDACTED] P6/(b)(6)

[REDACTED] P6/(b)(6) As a result, I've updated my resume to include my latest political (and other) activities and attached it below. I've also taken the liberty of listing below some of the positions I think I'd be competent to handle. Would you help me get my materials into the hands of the right people? I'm extremely grateful for your help and hope that I can be of use.

Best regards,

Neil Gorsuch
